

JAPAN ASKS ALLIES TO AID IN CHECKING RED ARMY ADVANCE

Mikado's Government Sees
Peril in Bolshevism to Eastern Asia.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—An exchange of views between the United States, Japan and the Allies regarding the Siberian situation and the whole Russian problem is expected to begin in the immediate future. The cracking of the All-Russian Government from Omsk to Irkutsk, a thousand miles eastward has greatly changed the Siberian situation.

Irkutsk is on the western side of Lake Baikal. In the event that the Bolsheviks ultimately should compel a further retreat by the Kolchak forces, Japan would regard the situation as a configuration warranting the taking of special measures to extinguish it. Japan does not like Bolshevism and regarding herself as the guardian of peace of the Far East, would feel impelled to act in the interest of other Oriental territories to prevent the spread of Bolshevism.

At present Japan has about 60,000 troops in Manchuria and Siberia and the United States has about 8,000. There are about 60,000 Czechoslovaks in Siberia, but they are for the most part no longer active militarily but are awaiting the organization of transport to return them to their homes. Some Czechs are still active in the vicinity of Irkutsk, and a large number for months patrolled the Trans-Siberian Railroad from Lake Baikal to Omsk.

There is no immediate prospect that the Bolshevik forces will reach Irkutsk, since they have progressed only to a point about 100 miles east of Omsk and winter is now on them, making major military movements extremely difficult.

Baltic States Will Begin Peace Parleys With Reds.

DORPAT, Dec. 2 (Associated Press).—Representatives of the Baltic states are gathering here for the peace conference with the Russian Bolsheviks, which is expected to be begun tomorrow.

Poland, Finland, White Russia and the Ukraine will be there at the previous Baltic conference.

SURGEON SAYS BOLSHIEVISM IS DUE TO MENTAL DISORDER

Dr. Henry Berg Believes Cure of Disease Awaits Appearance of Great Specialist.

Dr. Henry W. Berg of the surgical staff of Mount Sinai Hospital, believes Bolshevism is a development of mental disorders, curable by proper hospital treatment. He referred to it as a "psychical lesion" before an audience of prominent physicians and surgeons at a dinner at Heinenweber's last night, and said the arresting of the disease waited on the appearance of a great specialist. "I refer particularly to the treatment of the pericardial lesion that results in the germination of Bolshevik ideas in the brains of the workers of the country," he said, "and in gradually working toward the upsetting of society."

The dinner was to Dr. Henry Fraumeni and Dr. Herman Fraumeni, founders of the Hospital for Deformities and Joint Diseases, to mark the thirtieth anniversary of the opening of the institution, as well as the end of a campaign in which $1,000,000 was obtained for new buildings.

Are You this Lucky BOY?

How to get one for Xmas

Of course you want a Lionel Electric Train. Every red-blooded boy does. Operating one provides more fun and instruction than any other toy. More exciting than a winning touchdown or home run. And here's how to get it: Put it up to Dad. He's known Santa Claus for years. Tell Dad you would rather have one fine, long-lasting gift like this than a dozen other toys. See what he can do about it. Then take Mother into your confidence. Mother is a peach. She has a way of getting things that is simply wonderful. Take it from us—we know. And nothing is too good for her boy.

LIONEL ELECTRIC TOY TRAINS

"Take the Load Off Your Feet"

Though generally used as a jest, this expression is a mighty good bit of advice. Truly, the feet do carry a considerable load; the entire weight of your body is supported by them. When the shoes you wear are hard, unyielding and uncomfortable the load on your feet is a double one—both should be removed.

The Dr. A. Reed Cushion Shoes, comfortable in every sense of the word, relieve your feet of a great deal of your bodily weight, for instead of the strain being entirely on them it is distributed throughout the cushion.
